FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The independent film, NAKED HORROR: Art House Edition, of Gothic Films / Ethician Arts, has won a prestigious Los Angeles Movie Award in the Honorable Mention category. NAKED HORROR is produced by Gothic Films, a Huntsville, Texas-based independent movie studio which is owned and operated by local Huntsville business leader, George H. Russell. (www.gothicfilms.biz)

"The LAMAs is an amazing award to have among our honors," said Carlo Rodriguez, writer and director of NAKED HORROR: Art House Edition. "Names like Daniel Baldwin, Samuel L. Jackson, Hayden Christensen, Rosanna Arquette, and Anna Chlumsky headline the list of winners and we are in their company. Our heartfelt thanks and appreciation go out to The Los Angeles Movie Awards." NAKED HORROR: Art House Edition is the fourth project from Gothic Films/Ethician Arts, the completely independent Texas-based studio which also produced the award-winning feature film, LONG PIG and the award-winning short films, PSYCHO KILLER ATTACK and MANIAC BLOODBATH.

About Naked Horror

Naked horror takes on a new meaning as a young woman finds her body and soul stripped bare when her dreams are invaded by a mysterious psychic force. Cursed with dreams of blood and mayhem, beautiful Priya faces a shapeless evil whenever she closes her eyes. Desperate, she tries to avoid sleep but soon she finds herself slowly going insane. Feeling isolated from everyone in her physical world, Priya turns to the Internet where she connects with other people from around the world who are experiencing the same thing. Together, they soon realize that the images they see at night are much more than dreams - they are windows into Hell itself. Faced with this evil supernatural threat, Priya vows to fight back somehow and escape from her naked horror.
