FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The independent film, NAKED HORROR: Celebrity Edition, has been accepted as an official selection to be screened at the 2010 Action on Film Festival which will be held in Pasadena, CA from July 23 - July 30, 2010. The movie features Lloyd Kaufman, legendary cult film icon; Bill Johnson, who played Leatherface, in The Texas Chainsaw Massacre II; and Sandy Kellerman, who appeared in George Romero's, Land of the Dead. Ford Austin, the prolific independent film producer, was instrumental in making the project a reality. NAKED HORROR is produced by Gothic Films, a Huntsville, Texas-based independent movie studio which is owned and operated by Huntsville business leader, George H. Russell. (www.gothicfilms.biz)

"The Action on Film Festival is a very prestigious competition and to have been selected for this year's event is a spectacular achievement," said Carlo Rodriguez, writer and director of NAKED HORROR: Celebrity Edition. "This will be our second year having a project in the AOF competition and it feels really good to know that our work in Huntsville, Texas is being recognized in the Hollywood arena. It's all due to Executive Producer George H. Russell's vision of having an independent film studio in East Texas." NAKED HORROR: Celebrity Edition is the fifth project from Gothic Films/Ethician Arts, the completely independent Texas-based studio which also produced the award-winning feature films, LONG PIG and NAKED HORROR: Art House Edition and the award-winning short films, PSYCHO KILLER ATTACK and MANIAC BLOODBATH.

About The Action On Film Festival

The AOF Fest is one of the most progressive film festivals on the scene today. With writers, producers, directors and filmmakers from all over the globe, it is truly an international affair. They have helped people sell their films and projects and helped others gain the recognition and representation they deserved. About Naked Horror

Naked horror takes on a new meaning as a young woman finds her body and soul stripped bare when her dreams are invaded by a mysterious psychic force. Cursed with dreams of blood and mayhem, beautiful Priya faces a shapeless evil whenever she closes her eyes. Desperate, she tries to avoid sleep but soon she finds herself slowly going insane. Feeling isolated from everyone in her physical world, Priya turns to the Internet where she connects with other people from around the world who are experiencing the same thing. Together, they soon realize that the images they see at night are much more than dreams - they are windows into Hell itself. Faced with this evil supernatural threat, Priya vows to fight back somehow and escape from her naked horror.
